

The signing of Mueller & Co, LLP. (Mueller) took place on 10th May at the EMEI Regional Meeting in Brussels. The signing was attended by Dave Nissen, Managing Partner of the firm, Amy Chamoun, Tax Partner at Mueller, John Sim, CEO of PKF International, Sebastian Wohldorf, Chairman of PKF International, and Carolyn Morgan, PKF NA Regional Director.

Mueller works with many multinational clients and sees great value through the PKF network, and are confident that they will grow their international reach through their membership of PKF.

“We are very pleased to be part of the PKF International network. The relationships we are now forming both nationally and internationally will be instrumental in assisting our clients whose growth objectives go beyond their local borders. We will also be well positioned to provide a variety of services to support international firms who are interested in expanding globally, specifically in the Midwest.” said Dave Nissen, Managing Partner.

Mueller & Co, LLP has 15 partners and 118 professionals in two offices – Chicago and Elgin, IL. The firm delivers a full range of tax, assurance, accounting and financial advisory services.

John Sim, CEO of PKF International, added: “We are excited to have PKF Mueller as our Chicago firm in North America. With their impressive international client base and a strong local market reputation, they are an important part of our global strategy. PKF

Mueller is a valued cornerstone firm as we continue to build PKF International's presence in North America."
